'Ya Weli' is peppy, soulful number. The title of the song translates to 'oh gosh' in Arabic. It expresses a woman's proclamation of love, towards her life, herself, and her desires. "Ya Weli was born out of my love and respect for Arabic culture. It is one of me favourite tracks. It is close to my heart and I would like the world to experience it. That's why I have released a Hindi version too," said Pandey.

The Arabic song, which was released worldwide in October 2021 has been trending on Anghami, an audio streaming platform in the UAE. The track is complemented by a stunning music video with the picturesque Dubai as its backdrop. The striking visuals add glam to the song and breathe life to the lyrics.

Neha is the first Indian female singer-songwriter to create original Arabic songs in the UAE. Being based in the Dubai for several years, Pandey has been exposed to many cultures and different genres of music which reflects in her music.
